

The mystery of the Wolf

Directed by: Fabio Toncelli
Produced by: SD Cinematografica
Duration: 52'
Versions:
Format: SD

The wolf, the last great European predator, has survived for thousands of years in the Pollino National Park in Italy. Surrounded by mystery, until recently little was known of its habits and its delicate relationship with man and his domestic animals. For the first time, a group of researchers managed to follow two wolves, Francesco and Rebecca. Their moving story could supply information that is vital for managing the expansion of the species in Europe.
