

Po river delta Park

Directed by: Emanuele Coppola

Produced by: Panda Film

Duration: 30'

Versions:

Format: SD

Starting from the portrait of the black-winged stilt, the symbol of the Regional Park of the Po river delta, this documentary goes over the most significant animal species in the vast natural area and its precious ecosystems. Between dunes, woods and groves of reeds, untold images from the daily life of herons, deer, great reed warblers and a great number of other animals follow one after the other.
