

The Storm Petrel

Directed by: Francesco Petretti
Produced by: Diomedea Studium Srl
Duration: 26'
Versions:
Format: SD

As small as sparrows, the Storm Petrels are related to albatrosses and there are very mysterious birds. Every night they return to their nests in the caves which open in the cliffs of Marettimo isle, in Sicily. The film shows all the nesting behaviours of this little known species.
